The previous year showed that our children, the participants of the award, are ready to solve environmental problems. The task of adults is to pay attention to what they care about. ”

RNG JSC IMPLEMENTS PROGRAMMES TO REPLENISH AQUATIC BIORESOURCES

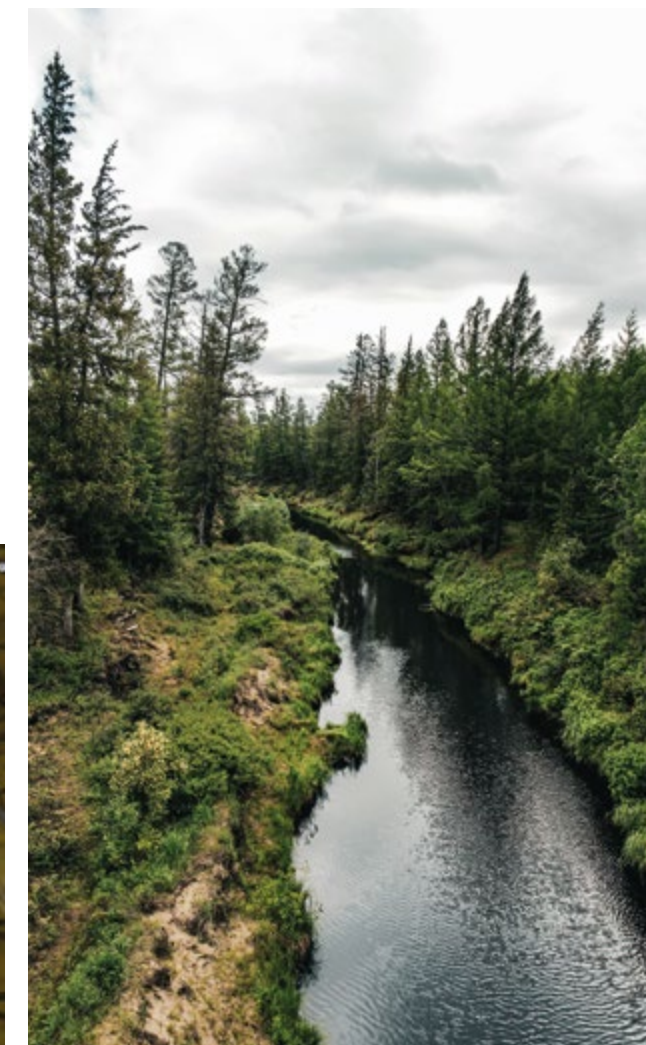

An important part of the environmental policy of RNG JSC is related to the reproduction of aquatic biological resources. Between 2018 and 2022, the ecologists of the Company released 1 million 556 thousand of pelyad juveniles to the rivers of Yakutia.

The fry were raised in laboratory conditions by order of RNG JSC at the Chernyshevsky Fish Hatchery State Unitary Enterprise. This is the only enterprise in Yakutia for fish breeding. RNG JSC has been carrying out measures to compensate for possible damage to water resources for several years. This initiative is aimed at maintaining biological diversity in the rivers of the region.

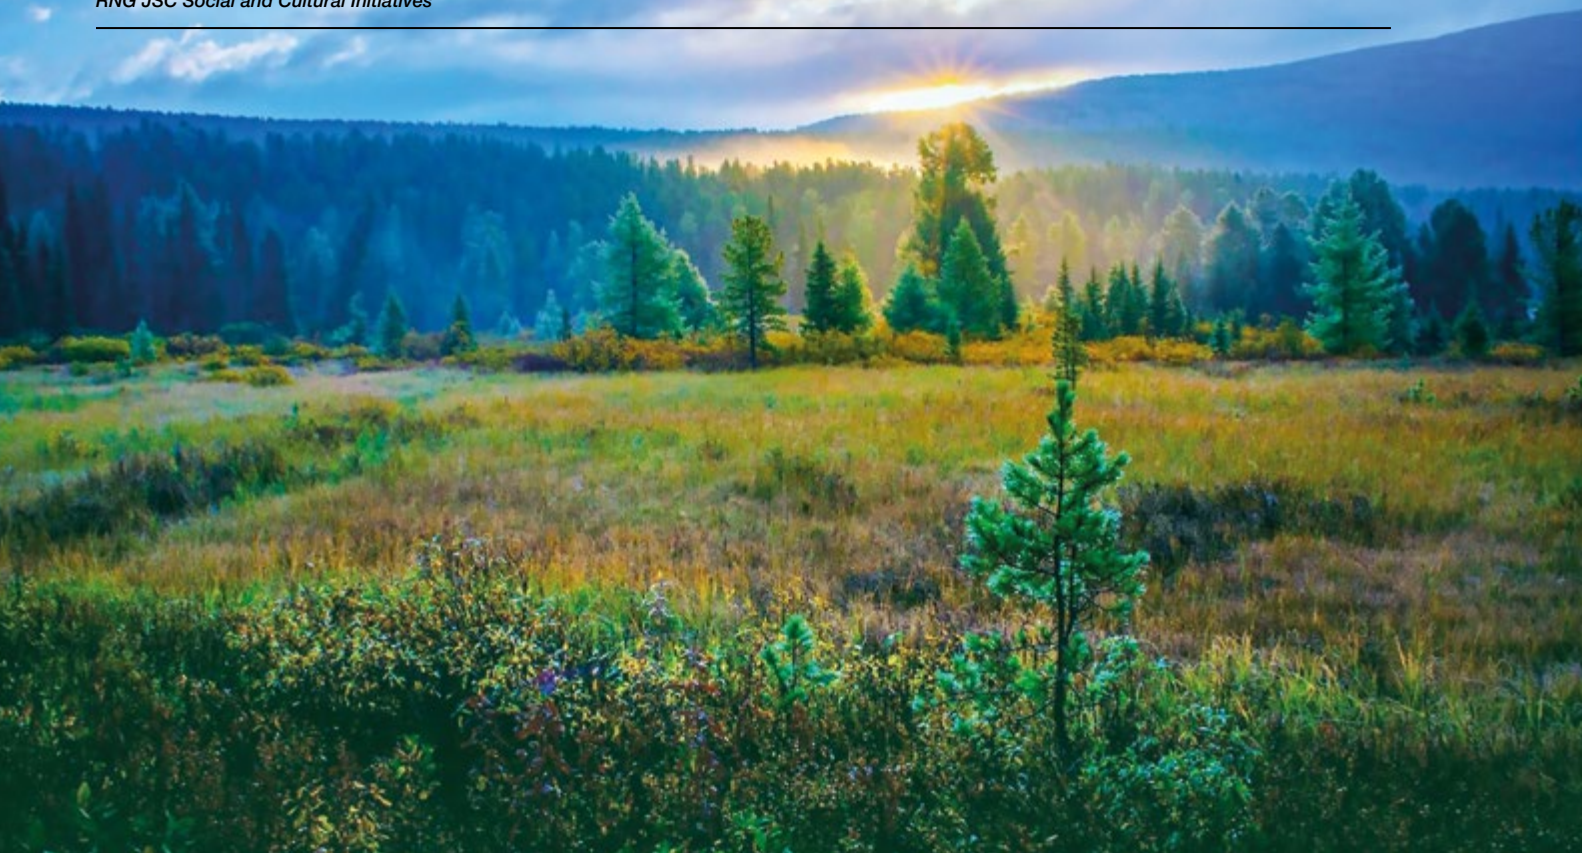

Last year the specialists of the Company released more than 211 thousand of juvenile fish into the tributary of the Vilyui reservoir, the Aannyaah River flowing through the territory of the Mirninsky district. Experts note the high survival rate of the pelyad and in a few years, the fish will breed in the waters of reservoir.

According to the results of research by scientists of the All-Russian Scientific Research Institute of Fisheries and Oceanography, it is the Vilyui reservoir and its tributaries that have the necessary food base for salmon, the necessary temperature regime and other conditions for survival and reproduction.
